2 Hello Mr. Riordan,

3 Paulette sent me a lovely link featuring Blaine on Aphrodite Jones. The system works beautifully for the 4 criminal. Paulette worked for Phil for years and NO ONE contacted her - not the prosecutors, not the news
5 media, etc. No one cares about the truth. They like the garbage de riguer gun stories. They sell.

6 Love,
7 Kelley

12 Phil Spector's Former Assistant

13 Dear Kelley,

14 I'm so glad to hear from you.

15 I've learned that there are tons of really bad people out there with no consciences. I have a hard time relating. The "incident" at Phil's 16 house gave the cops just what they needed to crush him - forget what the truth was. I saw Phillip after the incident and he told me what 17 happened - and I believe him. He told me that before leaving, Lana took one of the guns from the foyer and told him "this is what I 18 can do to your cock" - and simulated going down on it - and it went off. No suicide - no murder - an accident. I have also been told that 19 there was a "madam" who wanted to testify that Lana had done this before (obviously without the slip), but was not allowed to testify
20 because she was going to say that she had hired Lana on occasion, and this would have made Lana look bad - and God forbid we taint the 21 name of a deceased woman who made a stupid fatal mistake when they could destroy Phillip who the police hated for some time - you 22 know, the little guy who made good - better than them. Remember, smart cops don't exist. If they have a high i.q. they are not hired. They 23 look for followers, not leaders. I went to the trials twice. I don't know what they did to him. He was shaking and much slower than the 24 Phillip you and I have known most of our lives. I don't know what they had him on. He was so happy to see me and came over to me and 25 threw his arms around me. I felt so helpless. I don't know about his wife, Rochelle. I sincerely hope she loves him. I DO know about 26 Michelle Blaine - she's a thief and a liar - a lowlife who had a plan from the get-go. She has a blog where she trashes him so badly. One 27 would think if she despised him that much, how come she was working as his Assistant, and had me ousted to do so. I don't know how she 28 got me fired, although I do believe Janis had a part in that too. I don't know why. My "romantic" days with him were long gone and I had no sights for him in that way. But I will always love him, but I am not In love with him and had not been for many many years. If I had still been working for Phillip, the incident would never have happened. Michelle Blaine took away Phillip's protection and the buffers he needed.

No, you would never hear me talking badly about Phillip, He actually was the significant older male figure in my life. I spent way more time with him than I did with my Dad - and he loved me. You may have seen me on Court TV where I came to his defense. The whole thing destroyed many many people - and there Phillip sits - in a room smaller than the smallest bathroom in his house. How cruel.
And they have put him so far away that you can't even get to him to visit him. I wrote to him once, but the letter came back.

With love,
